

Announcement 2024 International Bid Round for Petroleum Exploration and Exploitation

The Egyptian Natural Gas Holding Company (EGAS) invites Oil and Gas companies specialized in exploration and exploitation to participate in the Egyptian international 2024 bid round, which includes twelve (12) open blocks for Exploration in Mediterranean Sea and Nile Delta as shown in the following map according to production sharing agreements (PSA) model applicable in the Arab Republic of Egypt.

- Egypt Upstream Gateway (EUG) provides virtual access to all 2024 bid round basic information, including coordinates of the offered open blocks, data room viewing: seismic surveys, subsurface insights, data packages, as well as the procedures, main terms & conditions and the Model Agreement
- Companies can easily review and instantly purchase principal and optional datasets, which are available online through EUG Portal:
<https://eug.petroleum.gov.eg>
- Interested companies shall submit their offers based on the announced procedures, main terms & conditions and the production sharing model agreement applied in Egypt
- The purchase of Principal Data Package of a block is considered mandatory to bid for the same block
- To participate in 2024 bid round, interested parties shall be an EUG member
- For Bid Round inquiries; please contact:
bidround@eug.petroleum.gov.eg

The closing date will be on Tuesday 25th of February 2025
at 12:00 noon (local time)